To all of his staff that has helped him in spreading this game all over (I would name them, but I don't know all of them)

To all of the ones responsible for the CPC/POW, aCe, and the GWFZ/Territories

To all of the promoters that have created "Bootleg" Feds and "Bootleg" cards...and

To all of the promoters that simply enjoy "Bootlegs" ...

TXW Backstory

In the year 2105 two wrestlers who were teaming together in the Earth Indy leagues decided to form their own federation. Santiago and DiSalvo (The Devil's Disciples) had a vision of something big and opened the T/EW (Titan/Earth Wrestling). DiSalvo had a few connections with a certain school on Titan and Santiago had what seemed to be an endless supply of money.

Some of the talent they brought in included an 18 year old rookie from that school on Titan named Chris Knight, a rough and tumble fighter from Texas named Tex Johnson, a pit fighter from Earth named Barracuda Barrett, a monster from Brymstone called Bayne and a few other indy stars from Earth and Titan.

Santiago became the first T/EW Champion and The Devil's Disciples became the first Tag Champs. Over the next five years the singles belt was held by Barrett, Johnson, Bayne, Santiago, and even once by the rookie Chris Knight. The Disciples never lost the tag belts during the first five years even though they went through some wars to keep them.

Things changed in 2110, however when DiSalvo had to retire from in-ring action due to a multitude of accumulated injuries over the past 10 years of wrestling. He decided to dedicate his time to running the T/EW full time. This set up a Tag Team Title tournament that was built up as a major one night only 16-team invitational that brought in many tag teams from across the indy scene. This also became the debut of Jace Logan (Known only as Logan at the time) who took DiSalvo's place with Santiago to form The New Disciples. The New Disciples ended up winning the Tag Titles that night under a bit of controversy. Also that same year, Bayne brutally ended Barracuda Barrett's career for which he was indefinitely suspended. Bayne left, but gave an ominous warning to the T/EW before he left.

The exposure of the tag team tourney did bring in some extra talent to the T/EW over the next couple of years with the most notable (For the eventual impact of the resulting feud) was the arrival of the Gladiator Force who brought along his slave Nikki Synn (Known only as Synn at the time). Logan took an immediate dislike to Force and had an instant attraction to Synn. Against the wishes of his partner, Logan began a "Crusade" to free Synn from her bondages of slavery from Force. The feud lasted almost a year and ended with a "Loser Leaves" match that Logan won at the end of 2112. Synn began to appear ringside with Logan afterwards and Santiago ended up turning on Logan, but suddenly left the fed before Logan could do anything about the betrayal. Santiago gave the T/EW the same type of warning that Bayne did as he left.

Over the next three years Logan established himself as the premier “hero” of the T/EW proclaiming himself as the “guardian” of the federation. He started going by Jace Logan and his now wife was going by Nikki Synn and they took it upon themselves to protect the T/EW from invasions and the “bad guys”.

Then in 2115, his biggest challenge arrived in the form of the Circle of Darkness when the mysterious newcomer Dark Tyger appeared. Tyger brought with him a talented female Tessa and the enigmatic Gothic Dragon. Dark Tyger made the Circle complete when he coaxed Kevin Angel to turn against the Guardians and join the Circle of Darkness after Kevin’s wife Leslie Angel disappeared. Jace Logan countered with a rookie, Darius, and The Guardians (Jace Logan, Tex Johnson, Darius, and Nikki Synn) vs. Circle of Darkness (Dark Tyger, Gothic Dragon, Kevin Angel, and Tessa) feud was born. This became the main draw for the T/EW for the next eight years, although there were a few other talented “supporting” roster such as Chris Knight, Brice Magnum, and a couple of other indy stars here and there. *(see the old T/EW set)*

Meanwhile, back in 2113, the first part of Santiago’s story after he left the T/EW begins with him landing on Brymstone and creating the BXW (Brymstone X-treme Wrestling) that quickly established a bit of a cult following with “Extreme” fans. The federation built quite a brutal reputation with some of the bloodiest matches in the indy scene. The BXW boasted a roster with the likes of Deathwalker, Hellspawn, Destroyer, Blood Eagle, Stryker (Later became The Reborn), the Tag Team Toxic Dreams and an exiled Bayne and Force. The BXW became the top fed on Brymstone over the next few years, but in the process became the planets top focus for destruction (Brymstone has it’s own set of rules as we all know) and around 2122 Santiago began to make plans to leave before his creation was completely lost.

The second part of his story began in 2115 where he secretly funded the opening of an underground federation of all female fighters called the DSC (Draconian Slave Circuit). The premise of this fed was that females from around the Galaxy were kidnapped and forced to compete against each other in illegal fights. The concept became a huge hit among some of the underground fanatics across the Galaxy. These fights became some of the most brutal matches ever seen with women up to that point. The main roster featured the likes of Leslie Angel, Shell Vanna, Raylon the Huntress, Lady Axe, The Baroness, Cameo, The Mistress, Monica, and Murin. The circuit was run by a mysterious hooded figure known only as The Slavemaster. The actual roster of the DSC had around 70 females, but they were used sparingly for one reason or another. Because of the guise of the DSC being "illegal" the UFSP ended up launching a full scale investigation in 2120, which initially caused an even bigger spike in the fed's popularity. All this changed however when the UFSP made it's findings known publicly. The DSC was of course a legitimate wrestling organization and when the UFSP let that information out, the mystique of the DSC faded away and the DSC began losing it's major fan base.

Bringing these two parts together, Santiago led an "Invasion" of the all female DSC by stars of the BXW in a two fold plan. One, he started paving the way for the BXW to be able to leave Brymstone and two, he hoped to help bring up the popularity of the DSC, by giving the fans of the DSC something new to see. The plan did little to help both feds as the Brymstone "authorities" followed through with the dismantling of the structure of the BXW and the DSC's popularity continued to decline. By 2122, the BXW was run out of Brymstone and the DSC was all but closed down.

Back to the T/EW. After about eight years, the following the fed had built up began to decline as the GWF began to steadily gain popularity and while the battle between the Guardians and the Circle has provided the independent scene some of it's most intense and brutal moments it has ever seen, the feud has pretty much ran it's course. In 2122, DiSalvo has come to an impasse as his beloved creation has become stale and he's run out of ideas. Fortunately for him, an old friend paid a visit. Santiago showed up and proposed an offer that DiSalvo found very intriguing.

So at the end of 2122, with the T/EW at it's lowest point and seemingly nowhere to go, the DSC virtually closed down, and the BXW without a home, DiSalvo, Santiago, and a couple of unknown investors met and came up with a plan. In the early part of 2123, the T/EW, BXW, and DSC all shut down. A short time later, a brand new federation made it's debut. The TXW (Totally Xtreme Wrestling) opened it's door with a combined roster of the old T/EW, BXW, and DSC and a fresh new concept and direction. While they knew they wouldn't be able to compete with the GWF, they decided to offer a bit of an alternative to wrestling, with a few new types of matches and even a new title structure. They also focused on a strong women's division and even introduced a Mixed Tag Team division.

After a couple of years, a bit of an "invasion" of MMA stars began to arrive in the form of a couple of groups that were being managed by rival MMA companies. The first was an Ani-Man group being led by Jarod Silver, the owner of the Silver Fighting League out of Auriga. The second group was also an Ani-Man group but they came out of the Galaxian Extreme Cagefighting league from Carina. This group was being led by the owner of the GEC, Miss Rebekah. Then in 2126, with the help of Dark Tyger and Santiago in behind the scenes roles, Jarod Silver and Miss Rebekah pulled off a "hostile takeover" of the TXW. The new owners then hired DiSalvo as the commissioner and Tex Johnson as the booker. In 2127 Silver and Rebekah brought in some more MMA stars to join the TXW and moved the base of operations to the other side of the Galaxy and began touring the areas that the SFL and GEC used to frequent. Toward the end of the year, Silver and Miss Rebekah hired the Slavemaster as an advisor. He shook things up, bringing in some outside indy wrestlers to "tear apart" the structure of the TXW and bring in some more fans.

Now it is 2128...and even though things seem to be going well, there is something lurking in the background, in the shadows, that gives the impression that things are slightly off kilter. Some of the wrestlers feel it and the fans feel it but no one can tell exactly what is going on...

TXW Title structure

TXW Heavyweight Title & TXW Cruiserweight Title: Matches (Or rules) devised for MMA style (From any fed).

TXW Heritage Title: Classic type matches such as 2 out of 3 falls, Ironman matches, best of seven series, triple threat, three way dances, battle royals, and the like. In the Heritage Division, DQ's and count outs cause the TXW Heritage Title to change hands.

TXW X-treme Title: Matches that are considered hardcore or extreme. This includes everything from a simple Titan Death Match to the Light tube-gas chamber-shark tank-explosion match and everything in between. It does not include any MMA based match.

TXW Tag Team Title: The tag team matches are treated the same as any other tag team division.

TXW Mixed Tag Team Title: Each team will have one male and one female and the matches will be fought as a normal tag team match as in a male vs female is perfectly legal. (Just use the conversion chart when this occurs)

TXW Women's Title: Same as above.

TXW Women's Heritage Title: Same as above.

TXW Women's X-treme Title: Same as above.

Management

Jarod Silver

One of the principle owners of the TXW, Jarod comes from a background of MMA Promotion and Talent Scouting. He put himself through higher education by fighting in underground leagues around the Auriga system. During these excursions, Jarod befriended an elite fighter named Kaliburn. Once he established himself in the Promotion game, he started up the Silver Fighting League with a few rouge fighters and centered around his friend, Kaliburn. The SFL became extremely popular in a very short time. With Jarod's talent for finding stars out of nowhere, they became one of the premiere MMA leagues in the Galaxy (Along with Miss Rebekah's GEC). He claims to be a lifelong fan of Pro Wrestling and strives to bring the wrestling industry the much-needed shot of adrenaline it needs (according to him). Jarod and Miss Rebekah (Whom he has a "frenemy" type business relationship with) pooled together their assets to purchase what would become the TXW. When Jarod is not scouring the Galaxy looking for future (and present) talent, he spends his time motivating the current roster into performing at their very best. One of those ways is training with them just as hard as they do. Some in the locker room say he can take a beating with the best of them.

Miss Rebekah

The other principle owner of the TXW, Miss Rebekah comes from a wealthy family that made their money through several "entertainment" avenues, one of which happened to be MMA. The GEC was formed when Miss Rebekah was only 10 years old and her father noticed she had taken a liking to watching MMA on the holovision. He built up the company and groomed her for running the business (which she excelled at) and turned the reigns over to her for her 21st birthday. That was 2117 and over the new few years, she grew the GEC into arguably the best MMA fed in the Galaxy. At least until Jarod Silver and the SFL came along in 2120. The two have become quite the rivalry, digging on each other in the media, teasing cross promotion fights (Although it never happened). Rumors started circulating about a possible romance between the two, but nothing has ever been proven. When they purchased the companies that became the TXW they continued their rivalry as managers of competing teams before eventually assuming their current roles in the company. She is a near genius level negotiator and manages money at a high level.

DiSalvo

Former tag team partner of Santiago (Devil's Disciples) and co-founder of T/EW (with Santiago). DiSalvo has dedicated his life to this sport, be it in the ring or behind the scenes. Even though he has had to give up control of his beloved federation, he is proud to see it grow into something he could never have achieved on his own. To that end, he has taken to his new role as Commissioner rather naturally. As has always been his nature, DiSalvo never backs away from controversial decisions and continues moving the Fed forward with a firm hand.

Tex Johnson

After 30 years in the ring, Tex had to call it quits after shattering his leg in a nasty fall to the floor from the top turnbuckle in a match against Dark Tyger. After his surgery and recovery, he had no idea what he was going to do. Jarod Silver and Miss Rebekah visited him and offered him a job helping them run the TXW with his unique experience and brand. He has always had a hand in putting cards together, especially in his last few years as the locker room has grown to look up to the grizzled veteran. He oversees placing new talent in the TXW and helping them get acclimated to the new environment. His Booker card handles most of the contracts of the new talent, however the special Part Time status That some Promoters dislike can be found here:

Part Time (Half the Cards over 1 Year) Placement/Renewal Criteria

**Promoters chooses No Clause, Special Attraction Clause, Brock Clause****

A-No Clause: House shows; Low card vs C for first third/Win all

If not add 2 to renewal roll (7, 10, & 13+ count as Standard)

Criteria not met then Talent released

Big Time Inc.

“Big Time” Adam Smasher

Adam Smasher has made a name for himself in the Indy circuit for years. During one stint in the PFW, he started a heated rivalry with Dark Tyger that got intense. Unfortunately, the feud suddenly died when the Circle abruptly left and the two have yet to cross paths since. That is until now. The Slavemaster has found Big Time Inc. and brought them to the TXW to pick up where they left off. Adam Smasher is more than happy to get a hold of his former rival once again. He also has some unfinished “business” with Tessa, at least he thinks so. During the brief feud, Tessa left Tyger and was on the arm of Adam Smasher, until she was “kidnapped” back. Adam seemed to go off the deep end during that time, however nothing was really resolved. He is still the brash talking brawler he was always known for. Always on his cell, talking to his “celebrity” friends and always on a schedule for filming his movies, he seems too busy to even be a wrestler, but when he is in the ring, he is always completely focused. His BIG TIME BOMB is his version of the power bomb and stays as effective as it always has been. He also still uses TOTALLY SMASHED (a one-man con-chair-to with the victim laying with his head on a chair), showing he is still as dangerous as ever.

“Hostile” Roy Morrow

Adam’s little brother is also part of Big Time Inc. and although he may not be as big of a name as Adam in the Indy’s, he may be more dangerous. He thrives in the hardcore and extreme environments that had become so popular for a time. When the Slavemaster approached Roy about coming to the TXW to face the Circle, his first question was, is Kevin Angel still with them? He always loved facing Angel and the two of them were never really allowed to do the damage they wanted to, but now, here in the TXW, all bets are off. Roy also forms a tag team with Body Count and the group will resurrect the battle they had with Kevin Angel and Gothic Dragon. Roy’s Finisher is called the WINGFIELD KICK (a version of the super kick). The Tag Finisher is called OPEN HOSTILITY (two-man con-chair-to) and is of course illegal in regular matches. Sometimes while on defense, Roy has been known to pull off something illegal to regain the advantage and over the years this has been come to known as Hostile Takeover. If he isn’t DQed for it, then his opponent rolls on lvl 2 defense.

Body Count

Adam's long-time body guard and Roy's favorite tag partner, Body Count returns to Big Time Inc. to help out his former team and to once again get a hold of Gothic Dragon. For one reason or another these two just don't like each other, even though they never really fought that much. There have been rumors that they have bad-mouthed one another over the years and whether this is true, Body Count doesn't really care. He just wants the chance to fight. Body Count has been known to use his trademark crowbar in the ring and his Finisher is still the potent ANOTHA SUCKA DEAD (a running Awesome bomb).

Cameo

Cameo was an aspiring actress with a gymnastics background when she was "snatched" up by the DSC. She became a pretty good student of the game over the few years she was there and also ended up being cast in a few movies, albeit small roles here and there. With Big Time Inc. coming into the TXW, Cameo has seized an opportunity and attached herself to Adam Smasher. Knowing what happened in the PFW, Cameo has vowed to make Adam "forget" about Tessa and show him how much better she is in every way. Adam has been using this opportunity to "show" Tessa what she is missing by taking every moment to rub Cameo in her face. The two act as if they are truly in love, but they seem to be using each other for their own personal gain. Cameo believes Adam is her ticket to the Big Time (pun intended) and Adam thinks he can use Cameo to make Tessa jealous. Cameo has gotten better over the years as she has really dedicated herself to the craft. Her Finisher, GUEST SHOT, is her version of the Money Shot.

The Circle

Tyger

Debuted in 2115 after being trained by Barracuda Barrett and made an immediate impact in the T/EW forming The Circle of Darkness, the premier "bad guy" group in the fed's history. Tyger met Tessa in Barrett's school and the two have been together ever since (except for the short time in the PFW). Tyger has always seemed to have his hand in the business dealings of the federation, but nothing has ever been made official. Has been involved in a war with Jace Logan and his Guardians for over a decade now, up until Big Time Inc. suddenly showed up. During a small stay in the Indy promotion the PFW, The Circle and Big Time Inc. got involved in a heated rivalry that was cut short due to several factors that led to The Circle's departure from the fed. Now that Big Time Inc. has come in and targeted The Circle, the TXW faithful has started to cheer Tyger and his group. It seems that Big Time Inc. sudden arrival coupled with the arrogance and attitude that comes with them, have rubbed the TXW fans the wrong way and they are getting behind their own. As a result, Tyger has decided to change up his looks a bit and even drop the "dark" part of his persona. Although this seems to be in name only as everything else about him really hasn't changed (Except for his finisher). Tyger still uses his trademark kendo stick and is still a submission brawler. He has decided to stop using his long time Finisher the TYGER-PLEX due to the fact his first student has adopted it for himself and instead uses what he is calling the TYGER DRIVER (A top rope DDT). He has already perfected this move, even to the point that he can even hit it on somebody coming off the top at him on occasion.

Kevin Angel

A graduate of Barrett's school, Angel broke into wrestling with his wife, Leslie Angel in the T/EW joining Logan's Guardians. Shortly after this, Leslie disappeared, and a distraught Kevin was convinced to turn on Logan and join the Circle of Darkness by Dark Tyger. Over the years, the disillusioned Kevin Angel began to enjoy competing in the hardcore type matches so much so that he simply started refusing to wrestle in any other type of match. To this day, if he is scheduled (Which hardly ever happens anymore) to compete in any match that is not considered extreme, then he simply walks out of the match and ends up getting counted out or causing a no contest. The result of competing in so many extreme matches has started costing Kevin a bit. These days, Kevin seems to be busted open quite easily (See the card mechanic). Even though the hardcore days have caught up to him some, he is still a dangerous wrestler. Now that one of his favorite foes has arrived in the TXW, Kevin is looking forward to facing Roy Morrow in some bloody battles. He has also set his sights on another new comer to the TXW in Ken West, because of his involvement with Leslie Angel (More on that later). His Finisher remains one of the most potent ever. CRUCIFIXION is a pedigree that turns into a reverse surfboard submission move.

Gothic Dragon

The Dragon broke into wrestling the same time as Dark Tyger, even though Dragon didn't go to Barrett's school, he met Tyger during the two's first few months in the business. They have grown to be best friends over the years and always seems to have each other's back. Gothic Dragon still fully believes he is the last in the line of Gothic Lords and is so enthralled with this that his training has suffered, and his abilities have slightly declined. He is still a capable wrestler however, and still uses DRAGON SLUMBER (a modified dragon sleeper) as his finisher. Body Count has suddenly shown up in the TXW and Gothic Dragon isn't all that thrilled that this man has returned. There has been the occasional war of words between the two stemming from their time in the PFW and now they are looking to shut the other one up.

Tessa

Tessa is the daughter of Barracuda Barrett and trained at his school. She also met Tyger in the school and the two have been with each other ever since. She has become one of the most extreme women in the sport (Inside and outside the ring). She has a very nasty reputation and doesn't really care what anyone thinks about it. She has become one of the most outspoken people in the business and seems to be very dominate in the business aspect. At least on the surface. The reason being, is that when she is with Tyger, she becomes a completely different person. She becomes very subservient and always takes his direction. She has never been seen arguing with him, or otherwise in any type of conflict. The thing that has most people confused, is she seems to absolutely revel in this relationship. Neither one of them are saying anything about it. Now that Big Time Inc. has turned back up in their lives and Adam Smasher is letting everyone know what happened between them, Tessa simply smiles and shakes her head when asked about it. Cameo has stated that she will show Tessa who is the better woman. Tessa has not backed down one bit even though she has a lot on her plate with The Mistress abruptly leaving The Circle and Nikki Synn still her main rival.

Her finisher is still a top rope hurricanrana that she calls EAT THIS! (Named as such because that is what she yells at her victim just before performing the move).

The Guardians

Jace Logan

Logan made his debut in 2110 hailing from that famous school from Titan and formed The New Disciples with Santiago. After a couple of years with Santiago, Logan began feuding with a Gladiator named Force that culminated with Logan running Force out of town and saving the Gladiator's slave, Synn, in the process. Unfortunately for Logan, this was against the wishes of his mentor Santiago. The result was Santiago turning on Logan and then leaving the T/EW with a warning that the T/EW is doomed to failure. Logan then became the hero of the T/EW, proclaiming himself the Guardian of the federation "to make sure failure never happens". Over the next few years, Logan formed a team of Guardians to help protect the T/EW (and later the TXW) and became the top good guy, fending off any outside threats and keeping his main rivals The Circle of Darkness from gaining any real power. Despite being a top-level athlete, Logan has begun to slow down due to some of the wars he has been through. As a result, he has been looking for an edge and found it in the form of D'Sorg, the strength training guru from the DSC. Jace has become one of D'Sorg's best clients and it shows with his new-found power. Now that The Underground has suddenly arrived in the TXW, Jace Logan and The Guardians have a tall order ahead of them. Jace hasn't forgot about Tyger, even though The Circle is now getting cheered, The Guardians still don't trust them. Jace still uses the JACE BOMB, his version of a Jack knife Power Bomb as his Finisher. Logan's DDT is a brutal move from a man with the power of Logan.

D'Sorg

Now here is a complicated situation. D'Sorg is from Ara and has developed a comprehensive strength and conditioning program that he has been using for the athletes in the DSC and now the TXW. In 2126 the UFSP investigated D'Sorg after allegations of illegal performance enhancing, but after the investigation, D'Sorg was cleared and allowed to continue his practice. So now he has even increased his business. The problem is, half of his clients are being trained in secret and if the clients that are being trained not so privately ever found out that D'Sorg was helping out "the other side" there would be a huge fallout. D'Sorg has been secretly helping Slavemaster for many years now and is even involved in the helping of "enhancing" The Underground, even though none of them know he is behind the methods being used. But for now, D'Sorg has joined The Guardians in helping protect the TXW from the threat of The Underground. Even though he is a rookie in the ring, his power and the fact that he has been trained to wrestle for a few years now, makes up for his lack of experience for the most part. His finisher is a version of the Steiner Recliner called the DEATH CLUTCH.

White Cobra

This man debuted in the TXW in 2125, suddenly showing up in The Guardians to help out Jace Logan. Nothing much is known about him other than he is good friends with Logan. Even though 2125 seems to be the first time White Cobra has ever appeared in the ring, he doesn't wrestle like a rookie. Problem is, no one can really put a finger on his in-ring style, so the speculations on who he might be are all over the spectrum. The man has been completely loyal to the Guardians and has never backed down from a fight, even if he is outnumbered. His SLOW DEATH is a version of the classic Cobra Clutch. He also has a defensive move that is illegal called the Cobra Spit that seems to come from his mask and is a cloudy type of mist that stings the opponent's eyes.

Darius

Darius arrived in the T/EW in 2115 as a rookie and joined with The Guardians. This was a natural fit seeing as he comes from a society of Bodyguards that are born and bred to protect the royal members of his home planet of Tirion. In fact, he was assigned to protect Anya Sel Ranikki (Later to be known as Shell Vanna) in the couple of years before 2115 when she suddenly disappeared. Darius was disgraced and ended up leaving Tirion to search for Ranikki on his own. His search led him to Pro Wrestling where he entered the T/EW and falling into his niche as a Guardian. He eventually found where Rinikki had ended up and went to find her. It was his accusations and investigation that led to the UFSP launching their full-scale investigation that led to the events that created the TXW.

Ranikki (Now known as Shell Vanna), for her part (as it ended up) was never really kidnapped, but instead chose to lead a life that she wanted instead of what her family wanted. After all of this came out, Shell Vanna's family surprisingly supported her and even helped her further her training. Shell Vanna rejoined Darius in the TXW and the two have become romantically involved. Darius has showed his prowess as a fighter over the years and his style still reflects his early training for combat. The Darius Front Kick is a powerful straight front kick to the chest. The DRAGON BLAST is a springboard top-rope dropkick out of nowhere.

Nikki Synn

Synn started out as a slave to the rouge Gladiator Force before catching the eye of a young Jace Logan. As a slave, she was never allowed to wrestle despite her obvious athleticism. After about a yearlong battle between Logan and Force, Synn was rescued and Force was banished from the T/EW. Nikki Synn began training at the Titan school to be a wrestler and debuted in 2115 at the side of her new husband, Jace Logan. She has developed a few rivalries over the years such as Tessa. The battles between these two have been as fierce as the ones between Tyger and Logan. Another rival is the technical wizard from Ara, Murin. This is mainly because Nikki started using the Aran Crab in her arsenal and Murin has taken exception to it. Synn also uses the Synnful Lariat, which is her version of a clothesline from hell. SYNNS FACTOR is her version of a jack knife power bomb. She is a powerful athlete that takes full advantage of D'Sorg's training.

Shell Vanna

A former princess from Tirion, Shell Vanna (Formerly known as Anya Shel Ranikki) left that life to join the DSC (Supposedly kidnapped) and pursue her passion for fighting. Her bodyguard (who was also her fight trainer), Darius was left in the dark about her plan and ended up searching for her over the course of a few years. Shell Vanna flourished in the DSC up until they ended up shutting down (ironically due to Darius and his pursuit of her). After the truth of it all came out, Shell Vanna's family supported her and even helped her get even more training for her to continue her journey now in the TXW. Darius, for his part told her that he is just relieved that she was unharmed. Shell Vanna fell for him when she found out that he left his position on Tirion to come find her and the two are now set to be married. Her SHELL SHOCK is a springboard shining wizard.

The Underground

“Devious” Scott DeVille, Shawn “Hellstone” Hilliard, Ken “The Ace” West, “Extreme” Eddie Dean

Every one of the members of The Underground was brought into the TXW by The Slavemaster for the sole purpose of destroying the TXW from the inside. Each member signed a one-year contract and were also promised something special in order to entice them to come in and do the job. Nothing is really known about the details of each man’s “special enticement”, but the group is very loose, even though they have the common goal of the TXW’s downfall. Each man will even face each other if need be (This stipulation is rumored to have been asked for by Eddie Dean). Hilliard and DeVille form a tag team called The Crooked Heels on occasion. The four men will gang up on The Guardians or any other team for that matter. Even though The Guardians have taken it upon their selves to meet the Underground head on, this new threat has declared war on the entire roster of the TXW. Slavemaster has even sent two of his loyal girls from the DSC to help the Underground. Leslie Angel has taken a shine to Ken West and he is taking full advantage of her advances. This has drawn the attention of Kevin Angel, but The Ace isn’t too worried about it. The Mistress has attached herself to Shawn Hilliard and now seems to be by his side no matter where he is. This is a bit surprising considering she was the same way with Tessa ever since the DSC joined with the T/EW. Now without any explanation, she has up and left The Circle and Tessa’s side to join with The Underground and Hellstone. For a full background story on Eddie Dean, Shawn Hilliard, and Scott DeVille see Aaron Chui’s OLW/FWA and The GWFZ (For the Crooked Heels). For a full background on Ken “The Ace” West see the GWFZ (as well as the bootleg story). Hilliard’s HELLSTORM is his version of the RKO. DeVille’s DEVIOUS DEATH LOCK is a modified Texas Cloverleaf. Eddie Dean uses HIT THE CAN which involves Dean standing on the top turnbuckle, tossing a trash can at a standing opponent, and hitting a seated senton. (Think Van Daminator.. Sort of). Ken West uses ROYAL FLUSH which is an X-Factor and the LOSER FOLDS (A sharpshooter).

Leslie Angel

Leslie married Kevin Angel in 2113 and they both went to wrestling school. After Kevin caught a break in the T/EW in late 2113, Leslie got jealous and left for the DSC. She never contacted Kevin for over a decade until the TXW was formed and she arrived with the other DSC stars. The reunion was not a happy one as she acts as if she never knew Kevin. The strange thing is the two are still married and neither of them has made a move to change that. Leslie's demeanor is on the edge of being crazy as she is prone to very violent outbursts from time to time. While in the DSC, she aligned herself with The Slavemaster's little group and has been known to do his bidding from time to time. She also seems to be attracted to the other females in the federation, constantly hitting on them and making advances to them in and out of the ring. In fact, Leslie hasn't been seen with a man since she left Kevin. At least until Ken West has arrived. Now she is all over him and he is relishing it. He takes every opportunity he can to taunt Kevin Angel. Leslie still seems to have a thing for the ladies and The Ace is all for it. Who knows what all of this will come to, but for now it has opened up an interesting little side feud in the TXW. Her finisher is still GOING DOWN and involves her dropping a head butt to the crotch from the top rope.

The Mistress

This lady is the single most mysterious woman in wrestling. She has yet to utter a single word since her debut in 2115 in the DSC, however, has had some of the most compelling "silent moments" ever in the DSC or TXW. She was at the side of Slavemaster in the DSC and then stayed at Santiago's side during his brief stint there. Since the DSC merged into the TXW, The Mistress joined The Circle of Darkness and stood beside Tessa the entire time. That is until now. When The Underground arrived, she simply walked away from Tessa and has attached herself to Shawn Hilliard. These two seem to be perfect for each other, but the move has not only put her in the sights of The Guardians, but Tessa has now targeted her as well. Her finisher, SEXUAL POWER completely puts her demeanor into perspective. She grabs her victim in a front head and arm lock and proceeds to do a very provocative dance before suddenly dropping them into a vicious DDT. She also still uses the whip she carries with her to choke her opponents.

Titan Perfection

Chris Knight

Chris Knight started his career with the T/EW in 2105 and has had an outstanding 23 years. He is a multi-time Champion and Tag Team Champion as well as being one of the most gifted technical wrestlers in the ring of all time. As one half of Titan Perfection, he has blazed his way through the indy scene as part of arguably one of the best tag teams to never win a Galaxian level title. Even though he may be nearing the end of his in-ring journey, Chris has managed to put together a three-man group that might rival some of the all-time best three man groups in the history of wrestling. This past year, possibly the most talented rookie ever to come out of the Titan school ever joined Titan Perfection at the request of Chris himself. This move actually started a controversy, because the man that has joined Titan Perfection was actually going to be coming into the TXW as part of another group but backed out of that deal to join with Chris. The fallout has resulted in the group known as XXX-Caliber coming after Titan Perfection. Chris has promised that he isn't done yet with the "building of Perfection" as he calls it. He says there is one more step to go to ensure that Titan Perfection will go down as the greatest Wrestling Group of all time. Chris himself, even after 22 years in the ring can still get it done and it shows with his three finishers. First is his DIVING HEADBUTT from the top rope. Then is CHECKMATE, his version of the move made famous by a Royal Court member. Then there is Chris Knight's trademark KNIGHT MOVES, which is a float over DDT into a float over Crippler Crossface.

Brice Magnum

Here comes Brice Magnum. He's as brash and as cocky as ever. He is most definitely the talker of Titan Perfection. He loves to let everyone know how much better Titan Perfection is than everyone else. Even though he is a talented and gifted athlete, Brice himself hasn't really improved much since his debut in 2115. Now make no mistake, even if he were to be considered the "weak link" in Titan Perfection, that's still a strong chain. Ever since Hunter Cross has joined up, Brice has been talking even more. Most of his bashing has been directed toward XXX-Caliber, the group that has decided to take it upon themselves to shut Titan Perfection up once and for all. Brice's trash talk is being matched, word for word in his newest rival Robbie Force. These two have made some bold statements toward each other and have lit it up in the ring against each other during their singles matches. Of course, Brice still tags with Chris and the two are still a premier team. They have gotten so good at double teaming they hardly ever get caught doing so. Brice still uses MAGNUM FORCE as his finisher (A perfectly executed top rope drop kick).

Hunter Cross

Hunter Cross came to the TXW in 2127 after being trained at that famous school on Titan. He is one of the most talented rookies to have ever debuted anywhere and was actually set to join the ranks of TXW within a four-man group named XXX-Caliber. The other three guys came from the MMA world and met Hunter at the school. Problem was that Chris Knight had been watching Hunter Cross during his training and convinced Hunter to skip out on XXX-Caliber and join Titan Perfection. Now these two teams are at each other's throats. In the meantime, Hunter Cross has climbed the ranks as one of the top contenders to threaten for every title out there. His main rival now is a man that was set to be his tag team partner in XXX-Caliber in Corey Judge. Both men are quiet and reserved outside the ring and leave it all inside. The team that they were going to form was to be called Perfect Storm. The potential of the team on paper was off the charts. Now, the two are putting on a clinic in a singles feud that is already defining their careers. Hunter's CROSSUBMISSION is a crucifix where he pulls on one arm with his legs and the other arm with his arms as in a cross-arm breaker, essentially putting on a double cross arm breaker.

XXX-Caliber

Marshal Ace

Marshal Ace came from Jarod Silver's SFL where he had been competing for about three years. Silver approached him and the other two members of XXX-Caliber to see if they would be interested in making the switch to the TXW. After they agreed, they were sent to the Titan school to get ready for the transition. They met Hunter Cross in the school and toward the end of training the plan was for the four men to enter the TXW together, but at the last moment, Hunter Cross joined Titan Perfection instead setting up the three on three battle that has been raging for the past year. The three guys from the SFL all have a rock star attitude and love to play to the crowd (Although each one in different degrees). Hunter Cross has said that is the reason he abandoned the group, saying he takes his craft very serious and he doesn't have time for all the other nonsense the rest of them were involved in. For his part, Ace is the unofficial leader of the group, usually the one who does the talking for the group (not to be confused with trash talking). Marshal Ace has a TKD background and is very quick with his feet. His Finisher is called ACE IN THE HOLE and is a lightning quick side kick to the head that he can hit from anywhere.

Corey Judge

Corey comes from an extensive jiu-jitsu background and has been training in MMA with Marshal Ace ever since the two of them met about five years ago. Ironically, they grew up in the same community on Titan, just never knew each other. Corey is the quiet, reserved, tough guy of the group, but parties just as hard as the other two. He joined Marshal and Robbie in the Titan school to get ready for the TXW, but he took to the training a little better than the other two due to his background. He was set to be a tag partner with Hunter Cross in a team that was to be called Perfect Storm, but Hunter left before the plan could be implemented. This made Corey extremely mad as he considered it a form of betrayal. Corey's Finisher is called JUDGEMENT (a modified D'arce choke).

Robbie "The Protector" Force

Robbie Force grew up in the slums of Titan but quickly outgrew his surroundings. He joined a boxing academy as a teen and made his way off Titan as an amateur.

Shortly after he turned pro, he found himself in the SFL making a name with a brash, quick talking persona with extremely fast hands in the cage. When he met the other two members of XXX-Caliber about a year before coming to the TXW they couldn't help but like the charismatic young talent. After his wrestling talent he adopted the nickname "The Protector" because he is "fighting for and protecting the honor of all those sexy ladies out there". He is the first to trash talk his opponent and has gotten very good at getting under the skin of most everyone he faces. Over the past year, within the battle between Titan Perfection and XXX-Caliber, Brice Magnum has matched Robbie's verbal tirade word for word and the two are creating quite a show for the fans. Robbie's Finisher is known as PROTECTION DETAIL and shows off his quick and accurate hands as he unloads a barrage of head-hunting lefts and rights in the time it takes the ref to count to 4. He always stops before the 5 count, but sometimes the opponent just doesn't last that long and drops like a stone.

Ani-Men Elite

Caste

In 2125 Jarod Silver brought this group of Ani-Men MMA fighters from the SFL (Silver Fighting League) to the TXW and acted as their manager for the year. Jarod had arranged (Along with the blessing of DiSalvo at the urging of Dark Tyger) for the "Invasion" along with Miss Rebekah, who brought a group of her own Ani-Men MMA fighters from her own GEC (Galaxian Elite Cagefighting) that she was to manage in a cross-promotion war of MMA fighters in the TXW. Caste was Jarod's "crown Jewel" of the Ani-Men Elite. He is One of the biggest, strongest guys to compete in MMA. He was known as an out and out brawler, preferring slams and slugging it out over any sort of technique. He is the heavy hitter of the group with never much to say (His presence alone does enough talking). He is very hard to knock off his feet but is still trying to adjust to the wrestling side of things, so he is still vulnerable to being pinned. However, making him tap is a different story altogether. His Caste Clutch is just a huge head and arm squeeze. The POWER BOMB is what he uses as his Finisher. With his size and power, that "simple" move becomes rather deadly.

Kaliburn

Kaliburn was brought to the TXW because he really had nothing left to prove in the MMA world. He had already dominated his division for the last decade and was one of the most decorated fighters in the SFL. He is good all-around but is one of the best ground fighters of all time and has thoroughly enjoyed his transition into pro wrestling. He has stated that he wants to win as much gold in the TXW as he has in the SFL. To that end, he has no problem tagging up with Lord Byron to challenge for the tag titles or even Vyktori to go for the TXW Mixed Tag Team Titles. One of the things his opponents need to be careful of is his hard head. Most blows to Kaliburn's skull really have no effect on him. The SPIRIT OF KALIBURN is a mounted gogoplata that take a little time to set up. Sometimes his opponent can see it coming and fight it off or even counter it. If it gets locked in though, it has the potential to be one of the deadliest Finishers in the game.

Lord Byron

Here is one of the proudest fighters to ever grace the cage. Lord Byron claims to be a descendant of royalty (Although nothing has been substantiated). His MMA career was at a standstill (about a 50/50 record), so he jumped at the chance to join the TXW when Jarod was looking for a group to put together. His transition has gone smooth and Lord Byron is becoming a good wrestler. He teams with Kaliburn as well as going it alone. Since Jarod is no longer the manager, Lord Byron has taken it upon himself to become the leader of the Ani-Men Elite. For their part, the rest of the group seem content to let him assume the role if they get to fight. Who knows how long that will last though, as the members of the group seems to be going in their own direction as of late. Lord Byron has vowed to lead the Ani-Men Elite to the top of the TXW. His Lord of the Ring involves him "bull rushing" his opponent up and over the top rope to the outside. The BULLDOZER SUPLEX is a hybrid of the Fallaway slam and T-bone Suplex.

Vyktori

Here is one of the most unorthodox and resilient fighters ever seen. When Jarod Silver was looking for a female to round out his group in 2125. He didn't have to look very far. Vyktori was already making a name for herself in the cage by being what many considered the finest athlete in MMA. She earned the name Vyktori by pulling off some of the gutsiest and most surprising wins of all time after taking some of the worst beatings in the game. Her critics say she just not good enough to compete at the elite level of MMA and the fact she took the beatings she did proves it. Even after she won her division's title, she had her doubters. After successfully defending her belt twice, she walked away from the sport undefeated and went to the TXW with Silver's group. In the ring, she seems to get better the more she gets beat on. She is a submission specialist and can pull off several submissions seemingly out of nowhere. She has also mastered the quick roll up and has pulled off some surprises along the way. Her Surprise Victory is some sort of quick roll-up to a lesser stunned opponent. The Sudden Submission is a explosive submission attempt to the leg or arm or even a choke on a lesser stunned opponent. SURPRISE VICTORY is the same sort of roll up but on a more stunned opponent. SUDDEN SUBMISSION is the same as the other version only on a weaker foe.

*After the quick pin attempt Vyktori rolls on level 2 offense.

**Vyktori's stamina doesn't increase twice (unless hit with a finisher), but blood tokens increase normally. After Vyktori bleeds, use bold stats.

The Predators

Saviged

Here is a true wild creature. Miss Rebekah brought him with her from the GEC when she "invaded" the TXW in 2125. She thought the wild and sometimes out of control Ani-Man would be a perfect fit in pro wrestling. She was right considering Saviged has been a wrestling fan since he was a kid. He even trained as a wrestler before moving into the MMA world only to be known as one of the wildest fighters in the history of the sport. He loves his new role as part of the Predators as he has always wanted to be part of an Ani-Man group. He has become one of the top stars in the TXW and has taken the female of the group, Felyne, on as his protégé. Nothing else is known of their relationship, but it is speculated they are mates. The entire group trained together while in the GEC (considering they all hail from Andromeda 9) and seem to be a tight knit unit even after Miss Rebekah has moved on as their manager. Saviged Plex is a brutal snapping belly-to-back suplex that folds the victim in half upon impact. SAVIGED FACE CLAW is his version of the famous move.

Gideon

This man was one of the best MMA fighters in Miss Rebekah's GEC. He was very gifted and had already won a couple of titles when he was in a horrific hovercycle crash that broke both of his legs and nearly skinned him alive. During his rehab (Which his best friend, Leonide, helped him with), he had to wear bandages from head to toe. Something in him snapped and while he has made a full recovery (Although he has lost a step or two), he continues to wear the bandages, almost as a badge of honor, though some suspect, he just hasn't recovered mentally. The transition to wrestling has done both him and Leonide good as they are meshing well as a tag team. Tiger's Will Play is a double side kick to the head. Gideon's Gift is a Sacrifice Face Driver. The ANDROMEDA DROP is their version of that famous move.

Leonide

Always known as a journeyman in MMA, he is Gideon's best friend. The two always trained together and were each other's corner men. After Gideon had his accident, it was Leonide who stood by him as he rehabbed and returned to fighting shape. The move to the TXW couldn't have come at a better time. These two make a great tag team and will take wrestling by storm. Tiger's Will Play is a double side kick to the head. The TIGER DROP is a top rope elbow drop.

Felyne

Felyne was introduced to MMA (and wrestling) by Saviged several years ago. He taught her everything she knows, and she carved herself a big name in the GEC. When she was chosen to move to the TXW she dedicated herself to become one of the best so she could make her mentor proud. To that end, she has become one of the best females around and has risen to the top of the TXW quickly. Lion's Play is a kick to the back of the head. Felyne Facebuster is a sit-out face slam. SAVIGED PLEX is a brutal, snapping belly-to-back suplex taught to her by Saviged.

Brymstone Xtreme

Santiago

Santiago, along with DiSalvo started the T/EW back in 2105 although both had been wrestling for a few years before that as the Devil's Disciples. Santiago left the T/EW around 2112 and even gave the federation an ominous warning as he did (When he returned in 2124, the T/EW folded and became the TXW, did that fulfill a prophecy given by Bayne and Santiago?). While he was gone, he started up a fed called the BXW (Brymstone Xtreme Wrestling) On Brymstone that lasted a short while but created a bit of a cult following. He also financially backed the DSC (Draconian Slave Circuit) and even led an "Invasion" of BXW stars into the DSC. Then after the merger, Santiago returned to the TXW and settled for a "back burner" spot on the roster. He was the major financial backer of the resurgent TXW, but suddenly sold it to Jarod Silver and Miss Rebekah essentially robbing his once good friend DiSalvo of his beloved federation. Some critics harken back to the warnings given in the early days of the T/EW, but nothing is certain when it comes to the details surrounding what is happening. Suddenly, here in 2127, Santiago has put together a reunion of sorts of the BXW and DSC with his newly formed Brymstone Xtreme team. He says he is forming them in response to the growing Aran group that seems to have declared war on Santiago for whatever reason. Who knows what is going on with all of these little battles. For his part, Santiago hasn't seemed to age one bit as he started his Indy career way back in 2100 and hasn't lost a single step in the ring. He is also serving as the ringside manager for the rest of his group, even the women, going so far as interfering in their matches from time to time. Even though he is from Brymstone, he doesn't necessarily act like it. He is usually seen smiling, laughing and dancing around. Make no mistake about it though, he has a bonafide mean streak in him. His Finisher is still DANCING WITH THE DEVIL. He holds his victim up as though he is dancing with them before dropping them down with a vicious Flatliner.

The Reborn

Reborn started out as Stryker on Brymstone around 2111 but was injured by Blazing Skull after only a couple months in the ring. Stryker disappeared after the injury and nothing more was thought of him. When the BXW opened in 2113, one of the wrestlers that debuted went by the name The Reborn. His face was covered by a breathing aid mask and he had a familiar air about him. He silently made his way through his matches for about a year and then suddenly struck one night with one of the sport's most dangerous finishers. After he won, he revealed he used to be Stryker, but Blazing Skull awakened the demon inside him and now, no one was safe. Reborn ripped through everyone all the way up until the BXW shut down and he joined the TXW. He still runs through anyone he can while doing Santiago's bidding. He uses the DEATHGRIP (a simple cranium squeeze) as his "tame" finisher. HELLFIRE CLOTHESLINE is his Xtreme Finisher. Reborn lights the sleeve on his arm on fire and hits a clothesline from hell on his opponent.

DeathWalker

A zombie, or a demon, or both. This guy comes from Brymstone and the BXW where he wreaked havoc the entire time he was there. Never has said a word as he goes to the ring, fights, and then leaves when the match is over. Unless Santiago has ordered him to do damage, then he doesn't stop until the damage is done or his victim escapes. DeathWalker is a very powerful brawler. Not much else is known about him as no background information has ever been discovered. He simply has always been Santiago's henchman. His DEMON'S TRIAL is a modified surfboard where he drops a knee in the victim's back and yanks the arms straight back.

Syndi St. John

St. John showed up in the DSC with Santiago and the BXW invasion. From the moment she arrived she has been at the side of Santiago, although nothing has ever been said of the relationship between the two. They seem very close and they both display that "devil may care" demeanor along with a bonafide mean streak. She has displayed fierce loyalty to Santiago, pretty much doing his bidding in even at the expense of her own career. Her Syndi-cate Stomps are a rapid-fire version of the Garvin Stomp (Or the Orton stomp for you younger fans). SLAVETAMER is a standing savate kick.

Baroness

Hailing from Draco The Baroness started out in the DSC from the moment the doors opened. In fact, it has been speculated that she was one of the ones behind the concept. It's entirely possible considering she was always seen with the Slavemaster and usually was the one that the rest of the roster was sent to for “discipline” when they got out of hand. She also was the one that any potential contenders for the title had to go through before challenging for the belt. The only other allies she had was Leslie Angel and later Syndi St. John. Santiago brought her with him to the TXW for being a loyal hunting dog in the DSC. As a reward she is now allowed to go for any gold she wishes. With moves like SKULLCRUSHER (A superplex that turns into an impaler DDT) that spells trouble for the rest of the female division. In Santiago’s effort to rid the TXW of the Aran Army, he has sent The Baroness after Monica. She also tags with Syndi St. John (Slavemasters) and they take on Aran Heat.

Aran Army

Pyrinth

In 2123 Pyrinth signed with the TXW at the urging of Toxic Dreams. They needed help in the impending war with Santiago’s growing Brymstone team. Pyrinth was an exciting and young high flyer from their home planet and they felt he would confuse the power brawlers from Brymstone. Pyrinth has a lot of talent and is adapting to the TXW style nicely. Although these two teams are basically trying to tear each other apart in any way possible, Pyrinth has settled into a one on one battle with the veteran Santiago. To that end he sometimes tags with Murin in mixed tag battles against Santiago and Syndi St. John. His Finisher, the PYRAMID LOCK, is a safer version of the triangle choke.

Toxic Dreams

Parathion and Gallium came out of Ara determined to make a name for themselves as a tag team. They started in the BXW around 2116. They got caught up in war after war trying to make it to the top. It appeared every time they would be close to breaking through another Brymstone team would target them and keep them from rising. Eventually they made it to the top of the tag team scene of BXW only to see the BXW shut down. When Santiago brought several BXW wrestlers to the TXW Toxic Dreams were not invited. They decided to go to DiSalvo and ask to join the TXW and he signed them on the spot. Rumor has it that Santiago didn’t like that move by his business partner. Santiago has been trying to get rid of the Aran Army ever since, almost obsessed with it. Parathion's Finisher is called DEATHSNAP in which he performs what starts out as a superplex that Parathion then turns the opponent and drops them crotch first on the ropes. Gallium uses the GALLIUM EXPLOSION (a top rope hurricanrana). Together they use a tag move called Aran Cutter (a version of the 3D) and a tag Finisher they call TOXIC NIGHTMARE which is a double power bomb.

Murin

A technically gifted wrestler from Ara that joined the DSC a couple of years after it opened. She quickly made a name for herself making many enemies along the way. She is one of the most charismatic women in wrestling and always seems to get the crowd on her side no matter what the situation. Murin developed a unique relationship with her tag team partner, Monica (Aran Heat), while in the DSC. They are each other's main rivals, but also are a very good tag team. They always seem to put aside their rivalry when they are teaming, and they are loyal to the Aran Army. She has been targeted by Syndi St. John as of late and as a result gets into mixed tag matches against Santiago and St. John along with Pyrinth. Murin's Finisher is called the ARAN CRAB, a version of the Sharpshooter but without the leg step through.

Monica

Monica learned kickboxing at a young age on Ara but never had a chance to compete anywhere until she heard about the DSC. She joined them in 2117 and became a mainstay up until they merged into the TXW. Along the way she found a major rival in Murin, a fellow Aran, and the two ended up becoming tag team partners as well as rivals. When they became part of the TXW they stuck together and even joined the Aran Army so they could have allies they could count on. She is involved with a physical battle with the DSC's former watchdog the Baroness these days. Monica's kickboxing skills have helped her out in the ring as evident with her move set such as Lightning Overkill, a series of rapid-fire punches and kicks. Her Finisher, FATAL ROTATION, is a top rope somersault leg drop.

The Hunters

Gorag

Hailing from Aethra, Gorag is a bounty hunter turned MMA fighter. He entered Miss Rebekah's GEC in 2122 and quickly showed everyone why Aethrans are to be feared. When Miss Rebekah offered Gorag a chance to join the TXW in 2127, he looked at it as another opportunity to prove Aethran superiority. Upon his arrival he immediately took to Raylon, herself an Aethran Bounty Hunter and the two formed a bond only Aethrans understand. Gorag and Raylon Have decided to take on the rest of the TXW alone, as only Aethrans can. Hunter's Rage is simply a series of brutally efficient punches and kicks. HUNTER'S BOMB is a driving power bomb.

Raylon

Raylon wandered away from Aethra as a bounty hunter at a young age but ended up in the DSC around 2117. She found herself entangled in a power struggle against Slavemaster and his minions throughout her career there. She is a proud Aethran and doesn't respond well to authority from non-Aethrans. She joined the TXW in 2123 along with all the other DSC's top stars but has been alone in her battles (As she was in the DSC). At least up until a fellow Aethran, Gorag, joined the TXW in 2127. The two of them have joined forces and are taking on the rest of the roster by themselves. HUNTER'S MOONSAULT is a high angle moonsault delivered from a powerful woman.

The Rookies

Nick “The Tiger” Williams

One of two rookies being released to the TXW from Barracuda Barrett’s school (Trained by Barrett and Tyger) Nick Williams has taken the nickname “The Tiger” and is using a finisher he calls SUPERTIGERPLEX which is his version of Tyger old finisher (A top rope fisherman’s suplex in which Williams rolls into a small package upon impact). Williams has potential but is still a rookie and sometimes it shows. One thing he shows an affinity for is the suplex. Even his instructors have said he puts on a Suplex Clinic.

Kara Mild

The second rookie to be released from Barrett’s school, Kara started her training on Titan before moving to Barrett’s school where she also learned some MMA. She really got into the MMA training so much so that she started getting called the “Wild Child” by her instructors for her tendency to get wild with her training. Kara and Nick basically “graduated” at the same time so they are sticking together in the TXW so they don’t have to go it alone in the extreme environment. Her finisher is a rear naked choke she’s calling SWEET DREAMS.

Independents

Mr. Rhee

Hailing from parts unknown, Mr. Rhee comes from Miss Rebekah's GEC where he carved out a very controversial path in MMA, almost being banned from the sport for using questionable tactics. Miss Rebekah decided it would be best if Mr. Rhee was brought to the TXW in 2127 so his controversy would not be ridiculed but embraced. Mr. Rhee's fighting style resembles a very elusive and misdirecting approach and even some possible illegal tactics. The problem is he is very adept at hiding things and is rarely caught. Sudden Storm is a series of odd angled hand and foot attacks. Mystic Hammer is a bolo punch to the back of the head. Behind the Mask is where Mr. Rhee pulls his mask down and sprays a clear mist into the eyes. DISAPPERING ACT is a duck under, standing hook kick to the back of the head.

Shaw Minn

Shaw Minn is an actual Voodoo shaman trained in the art of Capoeira. He claims to be from a long line of Voodoo practitioners from the Caribbean Islands on Earth. His MMA career wasn't really taking off and he asked Miss Rebekah if he could join the TXW during her first year there but was told there was not a spot for him. He spent the next couple of years training for wrestling and finally ended up being called in to help round out the roster in 2127. Sometimes he uses underhanded tactics such as throwing powder into the eyes, but usually relies on his agility. HEAD SHRINKER is a top rope leg drop to a face down opponent.

A couple of TXW “house rules” that affect the way a couple of the TXW Special matches are played.

-Quick pin: Any move that is considered a quick pin (From directly off the card or from a chart) is treated as just that. Roll the defense for the move first, if the move is not countered, then roll PIN, but roll the original PIN number in ( ) with no modifiers and do not add 1 for the pin attempt. If not pinned then refer to the defensive roll (dazed, hurt, down). If the defense roll was PIN, then play normally (PIN as usual with modifiers). In any MMA matches (Or any match that does not have a PIN end the match) substitute: hesitate-1.

-Blood flow: Three tokens still mean blood, the adjustment is when the third token is accumulated, the move that causes the token must be something that would logically cause the bleeding. If not, then next logical and successful offensive move that would cause bleeding that happens, does.

TXW Special Matches

-Pit Fight Match: This is an MMA style match that allows illegal tactics. Ropes and turnbuckles are removed from the ring, but the posts are left up. Falls count anywhere rules apply (Use that chart when the fight goes off the mat). Into the ropes becomes out of ring. Into the turnbuckle becomes: throw into post-3. Submission victory, KO, or TKO (10 tokens) are the only ways to win. If a move that attempts a pinfall but can't logically KO the opponent is used, (refer to house rule on Quick pin).

-Vampire's Delight Match (Or Draco Death Match): A Titan Death Match that cannot end until blood flows. Titan Death Match rules with the addition of you can't pin your opponent until you make them bleed (Always roll the PIN to see if it is successful). This can be done the normal way (See TXW house rule on blood flow), or after a successful PIN before the tokens (Assume you weaken the opponent enough with the successful PIN that you then pound the head over and over until you bust them open). After you make the opponent bleed, then the match can be won by pinfall or submission.

-Brymstone Death Match: A falls count anywhere match (Use that chart when needed) in which you must beat your opponent to the point that he can't continue (Use Torture Chamber rules for that).

-Sins of the Slave Match: A match designed for punishment back in the DSC. Originally the idea was that the wrestler being punished was given the chance to avoid suspension by competing in this match and winning. If they lost, then they still would be suspended. Now it is treated as more of a "Loser leaves" match. The loser is banished for whatever time was agreed upon.

In this match, the ring ropes and turnbuckles are removed and a chain link fence is attached the posts and ring apron. You win by throwing your opponent over the fence and to the floor.

Cage rating is used.

Into the ropes becomes: whip into cage-3 (Defensive wrestler rolls 1d6 on his Ropes Rating: A=5-6 reversal; B=6 reversal; C=No reversal).

Into the turnbuckle becomes: smash into post-3 add 1 (Defensive wrestlers rolls 1d6 on his Turnbuckle Rating: A=5-6 reversal; B=6 reversal; C=No reversal).

Deathjump played normally.

Out of ring roll on Sins of the Slave Chart.

Any Quick pin attempt becomes: hesitate-1.

Any unsuccessful PINs just keep playing (assume the defensive wrestler isn't weak enough to try to throw over the fence).

Any successful PIN roll on Sins of the Slave chart +2.

Any move that involves whipping the opponent into the ropes or into the turnbuckle increase in potency by 1.

Any move that would cause the opponent to be thrown out of the ring (or would cause the opponent to be knocked out of the ring) then roll for the defense of the move, if it is not countered, then roll on the Sins of the Slave Chart.

SINS OF THE SLAVE CHART

2: Last second reversal and you toss the opponent over the fence and to the floor. You win.

3-4: You stop the attempt and somehow turn the tide and attempt to throw the opponent over the fence. Opponent now rolls on this chart.

5-6: You hit the brakes and send the opponent crashing into the fence. Opponent rolls level 3 defense.

7: You block the attempt and the two of you fight for control. Better current cage rating wins (If same then better out of ring rating. If same roll 1d6 for control). Winner takes over on level 3 offense.

8-9: You try to block the attempt but go crashing into the fence. Roll level 3 defense.

10: Opponent manages to get you over the fence but you are hanging on. Opponent rolls level 3 offense.

11: Opponent tosses you over the fence and you are barely hanging on. Roll your PIN. If you beat the roll, then you somehow make back inside but are in a bad way. Opponent either rolls again on this chart or rolls on level 3 offense. If you lose the roll, your opponent knocks you to the floor. You lose.

12: The opponent tosses you over the fence and after a brief struggle you are knocked to the floor. You lose.

13-14: Your opponent tosses you half dead carcass over the fence and to the floor. You lose.

-TXW Scaffold Match: This is a possible career changing (maybe even ending) match and is used only to end feuds or to settle extreme differences.

Use Cage rating.

Any move that involves driving the opponent into the mat increases by 1.

Deathjump becomes: hesitate-1.

All other charts roll on Scaffold Chart

Any offensive move that would send the opponent into the ropes, turnbuckle, or out of the ring roll on Scaffold Chart

Any quick pin attempts become: hesitate-1.

Any PIN roll on Scaffold Chart and add 1.

.Any offensive move that wouldn't logically work becomes: hesitate-1.

The loser rolls on injury chart.

SCAFFOLD CHART

2: Last second reversal and you dump your opponent over the side and he falls. Opponent rolls on Injury Chart.

3: You fight your opponent off and reverse positions. Now you attempt to throw him off. Opponent rolls on this chart.

4-7: You fight for your life and a brawl erupts. Better deathjump rating wins (If same, then whoever has less tokens. If same then roll 1d6). Winner rolls on level 3 offense.

8-9: You block the attempt but are in no position to take over. Opponent rolls on level 2 offense.

10-11: You barely block the attempt and the opponent continues his assault on level 3 offense.

12: You try to stop it, but are too weak and the opponent manages to toss you over the side and you fall. Roll on Injury Chart.

INJURY CHART

2: Lucky fall. Injured 1 fight card.

3-6: "At least he knows how to fall!" Roll 1d6 for injury.

7-9: Landed hard in the ring. Roll 2d6 for injury.

10: Hit the ropes and bounced inside. Roll 2d6+3 for injury.

11: Tangled up in the ropes. Roll 2d6+6 for injury.

12: Hit the ropes and bounced outside the ring:

Roll 1d6:

1-5= x5 fight cards injured.

6= Out six months. Roll 2d6 each month out and if doubles are rolled then comes back at the end of the six months at full strength.

If doubles are not rolled in the first six months, then roll 2d6 every month after. If doubles are rolled 7-12 months, comes back with an adjustment of PIN increase by 1 (cage rating as well) and Agility increased by 2.

If roll not made in 12 months, then career is over. Wrestler has option of returning with retirement adjustments at any time after that.
